Is seeking to recruit the following permanent full time post
Location – Loughborough University

County Development Officer - Leicestershire

MAN1

Starting salary £19,258 - £22,160

2-4 years fixed term contract (subject to funding)

Summary

Gymnastics England is a wholly owned subsidiary of British Gymnastics and is responsible for delivering the Whole Sport Plan for Gymnastics in England 2009 – 2013.

The Whole Sport Plan 2009 – 2013 seeks to ensure a robust and seamless pathway for all those involved in gymnastics in England.

The Gymnastics England team includes Regional Development Officers working in each of the 10 regions in England and a number of County Officers to enable focussed support to our clubs and members in specific geographical areas. Leicestershire, Leicester and Rutland boast 25 clubs (9 with GymMark accreditation). There are over 2200 members including those participating in Men's Artistic, Women's Artistic, Acrobatic Gymnastics, Trampoline, Cheerleading and Gymnastics and Movement for People with Disabilities. A new and exciting Gymnastics facility development has recently opened at New College, Leicester creating huge potential for future developments and competition opportunities.

The Role

- To implement the Gymnastics Whole Sport Plan through the East Midlands Regional Plan and the Leicestershire, Leicester and Rutland County plan
- Support the development of Clubs, Coaches and Volunteers
- Develop effective links with local partners to enable successful and sustainable development of gymnastics
- Establish more opportunities for people to participate and perform in gymnastics
- Raise the profile of Gymnastics at local implementation groups e.g. Local Authority Sports Development Forum, County Sports Partnership groups, School Sport Partnership groups.

The Person

Gymnastics England is looking for a dedicated individual to join its vibrant team of development officers. If you are motivated and passionate about developing sport and an excellent communicator with effective interpersonal skills, this job could be for you.

This post is supported by the Leicestershire County Gymnastics Association, the East Midlands Gymnastics Association and Leicester-Shire and Rutland Sport.

BG is an equal opportunities employer. All appointments are made purely on the basis of merit and ability. BG is committed to an action plan to ensure this policy is fully effective.
