

Bi-Weekly Club Newsletter

Newsletter date: Issue 17 – 3rd Sept 2010

British Gymnastics and British Gymnastic-England Update

East Midlands Regional Festival

On Saturday 17th October from 4.00pm – 9.00pm the East Midlands will be hosting their first Regional Festival at New College, Leicester.

The Festival is open to all British Gymnastics Clubs, Schools and Leisure Centres and will be a great time for gymnasts to demonstrate their skills.

Flyers will be available shortly; Guidance Notes and Entry Forms will be available on the East Midlands website from the 10th September.

British Gymnastics Benefits and Fees

The Benefits and Fees for the membership year 2010/11 have been announced; please go to www.british-gymnastics.org for further information.

2012 Olympics Artistic Gymnastics and Rhythmic Managers Wanted

British Gymnastics is delighted to be working closely with London 2012 on the delivery of the Games, which is now just two years away. The full time positions of Artistic Gymnastics Manager and Rhythmic Gymnastics Manager, which will be crucial to the success of the Men's and Women's competitions at North Greenwich Arena, and Rhythmic at Wembley Arena has just been advertised on the London 2012 web site. For more information please go to www.british-gymnastics.org.